

MUNI

Workshop

Ceramic Studies, make sherds speak!

Methods and Interpretations

Masaryk University, Department of Archaeology and Museology, Faculty of Arts

6th of June 2022

Classroom M21

9h15-9h45 - Solène Denis (Department of Archaeology, Masaryk University)

Introduction : from archaeological remains to social patterns, toward integrated studies

9h45-10h30 - Lorraine Manceau (Contract worker, INRAP)

What to do with your sherds? Discussion around the different approaches

10h30-11h30 - Dimitri Teetaert (Department of Archaeology, Ghent University)

Pottery provenance, technology and direct dating - case studies from the Late Mesolithic to Middle Neolithic in NW Europe

11h30-12h30 - Peter Tóth (Department of Archaeology, Masaryk University)

Tracing the Neolithic transition in Central Europe through the first pottery. Chronology and technology

Lunch break

14h-15h - Sébastien Manem (UMR 8068 TEMPS, Nanterre)

Ceramic technology and cultural evolution: the European Bronze Age as a case study

15h-16h - Richard Thér (Department of Archaeology, Hradec Králové)

The study of the evolution of the use of potter's wheel in central Europe in the Iron Age: the contribution of analysis of the orientation of components of a ceramic body

organised by Solène Denis
contact: solene.denis@phil.muni.cz

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

